Edinglassie Has Successful Dance

The dance at Edinglassie Feb. 4th was a real great success as far as a real good time was concerned.

The cold wind and rather doubtful weather kept back a number of those who otherwise would have attended, but although the crowd was not a large one the quality was of the best. Everyone enjoyed themselves to the utmost and dancing lasted until sometime after 5 a.m. Saturday morning, when a second supper, or rather an early breakfast was disposed of and everyone went home determined to come back to the next Edinglassie affair which will be soon. The sum of $18 was collected, two donations being included. After paying some small bills connected with the dance there still remains quite a creditable sum for the Organ fund.

The committee wish to thank Messrs S. and J. Sewell, Mrs. Wm. Reinhart, Miss Harris and Mrs. Biensche for their performance on the violin and organ.

Also Mesdames J. C. and W. Reinhart for their kindness in preparing supper and breakfast.

We intend having a basket social at an early date so look out for the adds and don't miss the next one if you chanced to be so unlucky as to have missed this one.

Edinglassie U.F.A.

The next meeting of the above local will be held in the residence of Mr. J. C. Reinhart, (S.E. 1-4 2-44-2 w 4th) on February 11th at 2 p.m. As the report of our delegate to the convention will be presented at this meeting a full attendance is requested. The small traveling library from the University has arrived and the books are now available and may be secured from the Secretary.

Eddie Lambert Has A Narrow Escape

Eddie Lambert underwent a terrible experience last Wednesday night. At about half-past nine in the evening he mounted his saddle horse to ride home. On a slippery grade near the Tam's farm his horse made some false steps and Eddie was thrown from the saddle. His foot however was caught in the stirrup and Eddie was drawn the running horse for some distance. Eddie soon lost consciousness and must have remained unconscious for a long time. When he regained consciousness, he painfully regained his footing, and retained his horse. He did not know where in the country he was, but presently hearing a passing train, he regained a sense of location and painfully made his way to town about two miles distant.

At about six-thirty he reached the Kregean residence, being readily admitted by Mr Kregean, who did his utmost for the sufferer. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. StPierre were summoned and later removed Eddie to their home for attention.

Chauvin School Trustees Meeting

Regular meeting of the Chauvin School Board, held at the School house at 8 o'clock, Monday, February 7th 1921.

Present: Dr. H. G. Folkins, Mrs. Saul, and Mr. E. A. Foxwell.

Minutes of the last preceding regular and two last special meetings were read, and Mr. Foxwell moved, Mrs. Saul seconded that same be adopted as read. Carried.

Banking Business: Moved Mr. Foxwell, sec. Mrs. Saul, that Dr. H. G. Folkins Chairman, and T. H. Saul Secretary-Treasurer be authorized to carry on all banking business and to do all acts necessary for making and carrying out the financial arrangements of the board for the current year; to sign all cheques, notes, and renewals of the same, and do all other necessary acts connected therewith. Carried.

Moved Mrs. Saul, sec. Mr. Foxwell that the assessments levied re-Messrs Fuller and Anderson stand, and that the arrears be collected. Carried.

Lord's Prayer: The question of having the Lord's Prayer read at the opening of morning school was raised by Mrs. Saul, and after some discussion, Dr. Folkins moved, Mr. Foxwell seconded that the teachers be permitted to open school with the Lord's Prayer, if so minded. Carried.

Mr. Laws asked that the Secretary be requested to write to Edmonton, to find whether this practice was observed in the High Schools there, he not favoring the idea, although willing to comply if required to do so, the necessary information.

School Trustees Convention: Mr. Foxwell reported as follows, as delegate to the Convention at Calgary. He estimated that there were about 1500 hundred delegates present, necessitating an adjournment to larger premises. The fees payable by the various boards were to be: Cities 25; towns $10; villages $2; rural districts $1; and consolidated districts $6; each per annum.

Mr. Foxwell gave a short outline of the various papers read, including questions affecting the Teachers Alliance; Teachers salaries and residences; sick benefit scheme for teachers; blacklisting of districts by the A.T.A.; methods of School Inspection; Trustees and Teachers Contract forms; and costs properly chargeable to districts whose pupils attended other schools owing to their schools not being in operation. The trustees delegates appeared to be looking and prepared for trouble on the first day, under the impression that the A. T. Alliance was considering only one side of the various matters which affected both sides. The Hon. G. Smith, Minister of Education, in a very interesting address, put quite a different light on many of the matters raised, and appeared to change the whole tone of the gathering. He explained especially the trouble with the Olds School board and the A.T.A., and stated that a satisfactory settlement had been quickly arrived at. The Convention was opposed to the Sick Benefit scheme; and the blacklisting methods of the A.T.A.; though quite in favor of the Alliance having proper recognition, and of teachers being properly paid. Those delegates who complained of lack of school inspection were invited to give in names and particulars to the Deputy Minister, who promised to give this his personal attention. Most delegates favoured increased grants from the Province; and a proposed plan for working the Schools as a Municipal Unit was discussed, such a plan being now tried out in Manitoba. The majority were in favour of staying with the Contract forms issued by the Department of Education; and passed a resolution to that effect.

Mr. Foxwell expressed the opinion that the convention did not accomplish much immediate good, owing to the lack of organization and management on this occasion; (this being largely owing to the fact that only 90 attended last year as against 1500 this year) but he felt sure that much benefit would be derived in working out the problems raised after hearing them discussed from the various angles; and for himself, he considered the time to have been well spent. All school boards should, in his opinion, be represented at any future convention of trustees.

Teachers Residence: Mr. Foxwell reported having had an interview with the Minister of Education re-obtaining a grant for a teacher's residence; and stated that the Minister requested that the matter be sent in to the Department with full details; when same should have his personal attention. Dr. Folkins moved, Mrs. Saul sec. that a hearty vote of thanks be tendered Mr. Foxwell or his exhaustive report on the Convention. Carried. Mr. Laws asked the permission of the Chair to tender a further vote of thanks to Mr. Foxwell in this regard.

School Fees payable: Mr. Foxwell raised the matter of the proper fees payable by districts having their schools closed, and pupils attending other schools. The proper fees in such cases were 30 cents per day for each child. The amendment of section 131 had been fully discussed by the Convention; and the Secretary was instructed to advise the Butzeville S. D. of the charges which were authorized by the Ordinance as amended. Moved Mr. Foxwell, sec. Mrs. Saul, Carried.

Moved Mrs. Saul, sec. Dr. Folkins that the Secretary write to the Department re-Grant for Teachers residence. Carried.

Dr. Folkins then declared the meeting adjourned.

Hockey Notes CHAUVIN BEATS WAINWRIGHT 12-2

Chauvin Shamrock staged a real come back Saturday evening at Wainwright when they put it over the Yellow Shirts like one large tent. Wainwright scored the first goal two minutes after face off, but were tied a few minutes later. Not satisfied with that they scored again and Chauvin did likewise then added two more for luck ending the first period 4-2.

Wainwright's balloon went up in the second period and although they fought hard to stage a come back, they were unable to stop the Chauvin boys who were now playing a real combination game and fairly rained the shots at Boyd, who had one of the business nights in his history as a good tender. But he lost a few of his horse shoes and four more counters went through making it 8-2.

Wainwright were out with blood in their eyes for the last period. But never got dangerous and the few straggling shots that came network were handled in grand style by Ruth-erford, who played a stellar game for Chauvin, in fact the whole line up played the game of their lives. Keatley and Stewart showing great improvement over previous performances.

The only sad part of the affair was the fact that with the exception of Happy and Guthrie the players travelled all by their lonesome. But by dint of much persuasion on the part of the manager and the clean exhibition of the players the crowd showed their sporting blood and cheered the victors to a stand still.

Death Of Mrs. A. S. Campbell

The death of Mrs. A. S. Campbell occurred at 9.30 a.m., Thursday, February 3rd after a brief illness of three days duration. The deceased was smitten with a severe stroke of paralysis on Monday, January 31st.

The funeral service was held in the Westminster Church, Chauvin at three o'clock Saturday, February 5th. Rev. Hughes, at one time in charge of this mission field, and a friend of the bereaved family officiated at the ceremony, which was attended by a very large number of friends and neighbours and also representatives of every local organization.

Laid upon the coffin were the following floral tributes: Pillow, from Chauvin Women's Institute; flowers and ferns from Westminster Ladies Auxiliary; anchor from Albion Lodge, A. F. & A. M.; wreath from Mr and Mrs L. E. Roy; wreath from Mr and Mrs G. A. Keith, Mr and Mrs J. M. Keith, of Toronto, and Mr and Mrs A. E. Keith of Chauvin.

After a most impressive service, the body was laid to rest in the Chauvin cemetery.

The deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. R. B. Haddon, of Newcastle, N.B., and grand-daughter of former Governor of New Brunswick. The wedding of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Campbell was celebrated at Burlington, Vermont in 1896, and their wedding was celebrated last year.

Mrs. Campbell was well known and highly respected in our district and have always been very highly respected. Mrs Campbell always took an active interest in our district and have always been a hard working member of the Red Cross Society, The Women's Institute and the Westminster Ladies Auxiliary. Her decease is greatly regretted and she will be greatly missed and long remembered by the whole of the community.

Very sincere sympathy is felt by us all for the bereave husband, and the two sons Max and Alex.

Death Of Mr. R. Jukes

Robert Rene Jukes, of Artland has passed to the Great Beyond. The manner of his death was quiet and peaceful. He was found dead in his bed, the morning of Wednesday, February 2nd by Ben Gibbard.

Ben had called in to do some business and found the deceased laying still in his bed, he promptly called for assistance from the Kitching family.

It was found that the deceased had died without a struggle, his posture in death being the one in which he customarily slept, and the bed clothes were undisturbed. Dr. Folkins, who was summoned pronounced the death to be caused from heart failure.

Necessary legal steps were taken and the final services rendered to the body.

The funeral services were held on Friday February 4th at Brady. Being attended by a large number of friends and neighbours. Rev. Revell officiated at the service. Representatives of the Manitou Lake council Brady school district, the veterans and in fact every local organization was present at the funeral.

The deceased was a pioneer of the district coming in 1905. In the accompanying obituary, kindly contributed to these columns is expressed the feelings, not alone of its writer, rious grain growers associations, the

The Province Must Stay Dry For Next Three Years

Three dry years at least appear to be before the three prairie provinces and Nova Scotia as, according to expert legal opinion, repeal of the prohibition measures can only take place in consequence of another referendum which cannot be granted under the Canada Temperance Act as it now stands, for a period of three years.

This would seem to indicate futility of the petitions being circulated by the Moderation League, protesting against the liquor laws now in force and presumably to agitate in favor of a referendum on the question of repeal of the prohibition of importation by private individuals for beverage purposes. Unfortunately for the league the provincial legislature cannot even undertake to vary the measure of prohibition imposed by the act. Only for medical, sacramental or industrial purposes or for use in the arts can liquor of greater alcoholic strength than the provincial laws prescribe be shipped into Nova Scotia, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. Different degrees of "dryness" now prevail in the different provinces of Canada. The three prairie provinces and Nova Scotia are practically "bone dry" in so far as the sale and importation of liquor for beverage use are concerned. British Columbia has by referendum declared in favor of general sales of liquor without prescriptions by provincial government agencies. The provincial law, however, is powerless to prevent importations of liquor from other provinces by individuals for their own use. Quebec is considering a new law to inaugurate the sale of liquor without prescriptions and under certain restrictions through government agencies.

British Columbia, it was contended and Quebec after the passage of the bill now before legislature, would be in a position to prevent importation of liquor by individuals, and so to establish government liquor monopolies of the sale of alcoholic beverages because both these provinces would be in the position of having made government sales legal within their borders.

Ontario has a temperance act similar to the provincial act of Manitoba except that distribution of liquor for medical, sacramental and scientific purposes is carried on through government agencies.

If Ontario in April next adopts the Canada Temperance act it will apparently find itself in practically the same position as that of the prairie provinces and Nova Scotia to-day. Importations of liquor will only be legal when intended for medical, sacramental or scientific purposes. Importations for beverage purposes would be illegal and would continue so for at least three years at the end of which time another referendum on the question of repeal would be possible.

Express Rates Do Not Greatly Increase Prices

That the increase in express rates awarded by the board of railway commissioners to Canadian express result of again boosting the cost of commodities so far as the consumer is concerned, appears to be the generally accepted idea. "Merchants will take advantage of the boost in order to put an additional percentage of profit on their articles," is a remark heard quite frequently during the past week, while others admitting that an increase was perhaps coming to the express companies, assert that it should not have been as large as the maximum of thirty-five per cent on first-class tariffs.

In order to find out exactly what increase would have to be met by the merchant purchasing goods, we found on inquiry that the increase would not be material to the essential commodities, the cost of which chiefly concern the person classed as the consumer. For instance, boots and shoes which are included in the first-class rates will be boosted actually to the merchant about three cents per pair; that is, providing they come from points not further east than Winnipeg. The increase on a hundred pounds of boots from Winnipeg will be in the neighbourhood of $1.60. There are about fifty pairs of boots to one hundred pounds.

The cost of a suit of clothing will not be more than twenty to twenty-five cents. We arrived at this figure by averaging a suit of clothing to weigh in the neighbourhood of six pounds.

Under the old rates clothing came from the eastern manufacturer at the rate of $8.80 per one hundred pounds. They will now cost $11.90. Taking the average of about fifteen suits to the one hundred pound bale, the twenty-five cents per suit is arrived at. Not such a great increase after all to the man who deals in clothes.

The Wheat Pool

Mr. George Langley, minister of municipal Affairs for the province introduced the discussion on the proposed wheat pool at Moose Jaw, February 3rd.

The question, he said, is perhaps the greatest which has ever come before the farmers for settlement. The wheat board, he pointed out, was responsible for the originating of the wheat pool idea. The board, he added was never popular until it had been done away with.

Endeavors have been made, he continued, to show that Saskatchewan is hanging back, although her men were the ones who recognized the full value of the wheat board.

He referred to the drop in wheat prices which resulted after the board had been discontinued and wheat had to be sold in the open market.

Farmers had held their wheat to stabilize the market but agents put large quantities of it on the market and when there should have been 35,000,000 bushels in the terminals at Fort William there were only 17,000,000 bushels. This defeated the purpose of holding grain, but the farmers continued to pay storage on grain which was sold, he declared.

Little actual grain is being sold in the exchange at Winnipeg although millions of bushels are sold to hammer the market down and force the farmers to sell what they have in storage. Bogus wheat, he continued is being sold by the millions of bushels and the men interested are out to steal the grain the farmers have in storage.

Should Close Exchange

The federal government, he said, could stop the robbery of the farmers by closing the exchange.

If the grain exchange cannot be carried on without gambling, it should be discontinued, he said.

Essentials to the success of the wheat pool he gave as control of the storage facilities, good financial backing and the support of the farmers.

As far as the work of organization is concerned, it is going forward as fast as possible.

He denied that any difference of opinion exists and stated that Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and Ontario are in complete accord.

Facilities must be provided, he pointed out and the railways have both been "awkward mules" in this regard. Proper facilities for shipping grain can only be secured through the house of Ottawa, which could allow the pool the same control as was granted the wheat pool.

"A pool at the best can only be partially successful," he concluded, "It is the national system in which your hope lies".

Mr. Langley told the convention that only by complete union can the farmers hope for success.

At least sixty per cent of the farmers must join the pool, he added, to make it successful.

NO OPEN SEASON FOR TRAPPING BEAVER

There is no open season for trapping beaver, that only where animals are doing damage on the lands of the applicant can they be taken and then only under permit from this Department.

SMALL ADVTs DO BIG THINGS

The Fluctuating Dollar

At present, a dollar is worth only about 50c to spend; but it is worth $1. to save. Because, dollars deposited in a Savings Account will steadily increase in buying power as the world gets on its feet again and the supply of commodities grows equal to the demand. Buy only what you cannot do without. Put your dollars away in a Savings Account until their buying power becomes more equalized.

Mixed And Dairy Farming Advocated

President Alex. McKay Urges Hard Business: Asks for Co-Operation In Distribution

Mixed farming, and especially dairy farming was strongly urged as a solution to the problem of restoring soil of the Western Canada Dairy Association at the annual convention of the association here today.

"The farmer" he said, "has followed the line of least resistance in continuing to grow wheat year after year without making an effort to return to the soil the necessary fertility. The time has arrived when the western farmer must develop dairying and the manufacturer and distributor must co-operate in building up the dairy industry," he asserted.

Though prices may not be so high as in the past, we can rest assured that dairy products always will command a price sufficient to make a fair profit for the producer, provided he gives attention to the economical side of production. He must not look to the market to take care of his mistakes, however, Mr. MacKay declared

Ho's Will Pay

Whatever may have been your luck with hogs in the past three or four years, it is going to pay you to breed them during the coming season, provided you can get the sows to breed, and provided, also, that you are so located as to be able to take advantage of the cheap feed which is this season abundant in Alberta.

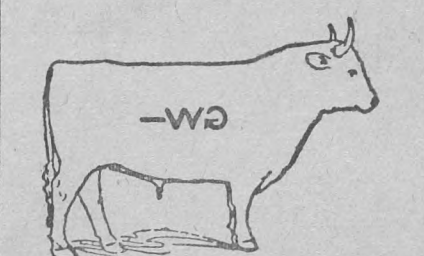

This does not mean that you will be able to demand what is known as fancy prices for your product. It would not do you much good if you did, for the world would not be able to pay fancy prices, and pork and pork products would pass into the luxury class. But you will make a good profit provided you know how to handle hogs, and after all that is the main consideration.

Cow Bill Loans Stop

A halt has been called in the operation of the cow bill which the department of agriculture administers as part of the government's good-farming policy. Payments under this act will probably not be resumed until May or June.

To date about $1,700.00 has been advanced to farmers in all parts of the province for the purchase of livestock, and the government has decided to suspend further operations for the time being, the scheme having assumed even larger proportions than was at first anticipated. None of the notes taken from farmers under the scheme will be payable until 1922, but about $330,000 has been already paid in advance. There are now some 30,000 animals in the province purchased through the agency of the cow bill and bearing the government's brand.

3500 Threshing Rigs Operated In Alberta Last Year

Greatest Fleet Of Machines Ever Operated Within The Province

The year 1920 saw the greatest fleet of threshing machines in operation throughout Alberta that was ever witnessed in the province.

According to the records of the license office in the provincial government buildings, a total of 3,537 outfits were engaged in handling the big crop harvested last fall, this being considerably in advance of the registration in former years.

Owing to an unusually favorable autumn the records of the threshers are more than ordinarily complete although returns were not all in hand until the beginning of the new year. The increase in the number of machines was largely due to the heavy crop and more extensive acreage in the central and northern portions of the province, hundreds of new outfits being sent into the field during the fall.

Officials in the license office estimate that probably two-thirds of the threshing machines in the province are gas driven, the remainder using steam engines.

After eleven years of experimenting the Dominion wheat expert, Luther Burbank, has produced a "super-wheat" which will thrive in all but the most extreme climates.

"Some merchants don't advertise because they say, that everyone knows where their stores are" states an exchange. That may be true. Everyone knows where the cemetery is, too, but not many people have a great desire to go there.

Labour troubles are very often caused by men who are trying to make a living without work.

Neck Tie Social;*Fram; Fri., Feb. 4.

A very successful Necktie Social was held in the Schoolhouse on Friday evening February 5th in aid of the Organ Fund. The efforts of the committee in charge were amply rewarded by the splendid turnout and an enjoyable evening was spent. The proceeds of this Social, together with the balance left over from the last will be applied to the purchase of an organ amount to the sum of $75 which proved a splendid achievement. The ties ranging from $1.50 to $3.00 apiece.

NOTES FROM FRAM DISTRICT

A movement in favor of forming a local branch of the S.G.G.A. is very strong in this district, and with that object in view a meeting will be held at the school on Saturday evening February 19th, at which it is hoped everyone interested will make a strong point of being present. 7 o'clock is the hour fixed for the commencement of the meeting.

Watch for the chickadee, one of our prettiest and most sociable visitors. It is about six inches long, black head and chin, rest of body grey. It feeds on insects found on trees and can eat in any position clinging to the branches from below or above. In a very few months they will migrate farther north.

Mr. Fuller reports Edgerton as ordering $370 worth of science equipment. We will have to look to our laurels.

Mr. Campbell has our sympathy in his sad bereavement.

There passed in Artland during Tuesday night, one well known to us all, and for whom most of us had a soft spot in our hearts. Robert Rene Jukes was a man of wide experience a genuine citizen of the world, albeit an Englishman to the core, of gentle birth, and he looked it. Even in old age his spare figure was always upright, his thin aquiline features, grey moustache and short grey hair, his crisp speech always in perfect English and without the use of any slang, hall-marked him for the gentleman he was. To many of us he had a personal charm that endeared him to us. He was a widely travelled man having been in various countries in the far East, also he knew Europe intimately. The writer remembers telling him of places visited during the war in France, Belgium and Germany. He knew them all and had visited them years ago in times of peace. Although undoubtedly in later years he met with reverses, though he was no farmer and had he been, he was too old for manual labor, yet the vicissitudes of life did not embitter him. He was always serene and his manner invariably compelled respect from those having dealings with him. He had a very proper pride, and would have starved to death rather than seek charity. He had many friends ready and anxious to lend a helping hand, but if one wanted to do him a little kindness, great diplomacy was necessary to break through the bullwark of the old man's pride. I shall always be glad he was a friend of mine and am anxious to testify that on more than one occasion I have been edified by the counsel he has given.

Ah, well he is only a memory now, a pleasant memory, and as we get on in life these memories seem to increase so rapidly and their number is so great, Only a short time and we too shall be only a memory, let us hope a pleasant one, to some few friends who may miss us.

He lies in God's acre at Brady in the district with which he was intimately associated for many years. God rest him.

Gun Licenses
It has been said locally that you could not get a gun license until a policeman came, and that then you were liable to arrest for being in possession of a gun without having a license for the same. Well Magistrate Dawson was in town early this week issuing these licenses, at a cost of .25c each. He informs he will be in Chauvin on the day of the Seed Fair and will issue such as may be called for, on that occasion. There will be no need for us to remain law-breakers after this date.

Sardine Eggs
After boiling hard four eggs, cut these across in halves, then remove the yolks. Next pound the yolks with a piece of butter, half a dozen sardines which have been scraped and boned, also pepper, salt and a few drops of lemon juice. Cut a piece off the foot of each halved white of egg, so that it will stand nicely on toast, then fill each with the pounded mixture. The savoury should be served with a pretty border of shredded lettuce.

Summer Breakfast
..Arrange some cold-boiled ham in the centre of an ashet. Around this place a border of sliced hard-boiled eggs and outside of the eggs a border of sliced tomatoes with, last of all, a border of watercress or shredded lettuce.

RULES

1. All exhibitors must be members of Chauvin Agricultural Society.
2. All seeds entered for competition must have been grown in the year 1920 by the exhibitor, who must have for sale at least 50 bushels in the classes for wheat, oats, and barley; 25 bushels for flax, and rye; and 5 bushels for potatoes.
3. In classes 1 to 11 inclusive one bushel of seed shall be shown; in classes 12 to 15, one-half bushel. All exhibits of seed shall be held to be representative of the total quantity of such seed offered for sale by the exhibitor.
4. No premium shall be awarded on exhibits that contain impurities, in the opinion of the judge, are of noxious nature.
5. No exhibitor shall receive more than one prize in any class.
6. All samples of seed must be labelled, after judging, with the name and address of the exhibitor, the name of the variety, the amount of seed for sale and selling price.
7. The committee in conjunction with the judges reserve the right to debar any exhibit on which, in their judgment, a prohibitive price is placed.
8. Any exhibitor making entry under any of the above classes thereby guarantees that his exhibit is a fair sample of the seed he has for sale and that the said sample has only been cleaned through a fanning mill not more than twice, and furthermore with particular reference to oats, that nothing has been done that would come under the head of "clipping" "blanketing" "rubbing," etc.
9. Before prizes are paid, each exhibitor will be required to certify that his exhibit strictly complies with regulation. In case of failure to do so the next in order will be awarded the prize.
10. In the event of less than three entries in any class, first or other prizes will only be awarded at the discretion of the judge.
11. Poultry exhibits shall consist of two females and one male. Ducks, Geese and Turkeys, one each.
12. All poultry must be exhibited in tight bottom crates, such that the judge may be able to remove the birds
13. In the event of more than three entries in any chicken class, a championship of $3.00 will be given
10. Potatoes may be selected.
11. All exhibits for competition for prizes must be at I. O. O. F. Hall, Chauvin, not later than 11 a.m., on Saturday, February 26th, 1921, and shall not be removed until the close of the fair.

More Cars Needed

A resolution passed by the United Farmers of Alberta at their Edmonton convention calls for the equalizing of grain prices on the different railway lines in order to prevent a repetition of this season's conditions, when people on the Canadian National railways were penalized the extent of seven cents per bushel on their wheat. A representative of the Canadian Pacific railway, who was present feared that such action might cause a reduction of prices along the C. P. R. to the other level if there was a condition again such as they said existed again this year.

There seems little reason for his fears because if a simillior condition exists next fall in regard to the movement of grain cars then grain buyers will likely find some way to pay more on lines where they can make prompt shipment as before. It will be remembered how, when some of the prairie Board of Trade protested the penalty put on wheat prices on National railway lines by some line elevator companies the Grain Exchange at Winnipeg depreciated such action (if one is to believe their resolution telegraphed west) by way of response. Immediately, however, the offenders changed their tactics in conformity to the wording of the resolution but not the spirit of it for they withdrew the offensive quotations and in some cases ceased buying, leaving the fields to others they proceeded to pay a "premium" on Canadian Pacific lines to facilitate quick sales by farmers and be able to make quick deliveries without having capital tied up too long. Unless the grain trade move to remedy these deceptions by altering rules and customs, and as at present constituted by the Grain Exchanges is not likely to do so, then the difference of prices in some shape or other will continue if the shortage of freight cars remains acute.

The shortage of freight cars is the real cause of the difference in prices prevailing on the two great railway systems under the present system of marketing grain. Remove the cause by building more freight cars. If this can't be done, then as a palliative measure the grain trade might be appealed to alter their customs and usages to meet the situation. How this could best be accomplished is a problem for the Grain Exchange as it would affect the basis of buying and trading on the prairies.

At present a basis for trading is secured as soon as grain is "on track" but prices vary but little from track prices when cars are easily secured. When there is a great uncertainty as to cars and a considerable delay is likely before the grain can be placed "on track" for resale, buyers take chances in buying grain for loading at such points unless upon the basis of quotations current for future deliveries. This is what occurred at many points on Na- were in some cases using quotations for future deliveries of one and two months hence as a basis for their buying prices. As the season advanced there was added to this spread the excess of an all-rail freight rate over a lake and rail rate which was at end with the close of navigation on the Great Lakes. Life in grain trade, as in other business, depends upon turn-over and grain is virtually out of the market until it is "on track" or cars are available and it can be rolling in a few hours if needed.

A lock in shipping facilities is thus the great handicap to be overcome. While remembering that forced delay in marketing grain early last fall cost many farmers money, it might be well to recall that similar conditions in the early wor years made money on a rising market when farmers who who would have sold at lower prices were prevented from doing so through like delays. On the whole, however good shipping facilities are a great advantage which open to every man a market that would equalize all grain prices. The desires expressed by the resolution will be best secured by a great increase in the number of freight cars this year.

Tasteless preparation of Cod Liver Oil season is again on; and as in the former winter seasons, we are recommending that you take from one to three bottles. Those who have taken our advice in former years have found that prevention of sickness is cheaper and more convenient than cure—The same old price $1.00 per bottle, at the Chauvin Pharmacy.
